

FORM DIRECTIONS: If you are accessing this agreement from the B.C. Government Web site, it can be filled out at the computer workstation. It can also be printed and completed by hand. If completing sections by hand, please print clearly, using dark ink. If you are completing this form at a computer, simply type in your response in the boxes. If you cannot complete all the sections at the computer right away, you can print off what you have completed, and fill in the remaining fields by hand. It's important to note that you cannot save the completed form to your computer, therefore, after you complete the form, make sure you review the form for accuracy and print the number of copies you require before you leave the document or shut down the program/computer.

This form is used by the landlord to notify a tenant of a rent increase. The landlord must give the tenant at least three months notice. See page 2 for further information.

INFORMATION FOR LANDLORDS and TENANTS

GIVING A NOTICE OF RENT INCREASE UNDER THE RESIDENTIAL TENANCY ACT (RTA)

- Once a year, the landlord may increase the rent for the existing tenant. The landlord may only increase the rent 12 months after the date that the existing rent was established with the tenant(s) or 12 months after the date of the last legal rent increase for the tenant(s), even if there is a new landlord or a new tenant by way of an assignment.
- A landlord must give a tenant at least 3 whole month's notice, in writing, of a rent increase. For example, if the rent is due on the first day of the month and the tenant is given notice any time in January, even January 1st, there must be 3 whole months before the rent increase begins. In this example, the months are February, March, and April, so the rent increase would begin on May 1st. The landlord must use this form, Notice of Rent Increase, and must serve according to the Residential Tenancy Act.
- It is an offence for a landlord or a landlord's agent to collect a rent increase in any other way other than in accordance with Part 3 of the Residential Tenancy Act.
- A notice sent by mail (which is one method of service) is deemed to be received on the 5th day after it was mailed. For example, a rent increase given personally to a tenant on or before January 31st, could be effective May 1st; a rent increase given by registered mail should be mailed on or before January 26th for the increase to be effective on May 1st.
- A tenant may not apply for dispute resolution to dispute a rent increase that complies with Part 3 of the RTA.
- A landlord may only impose a rent increase up to the amount calculated in accordance with the regulations or as ordered by a dispute resolution officer. If a tenant believes that the rent increase is more than allowed by the regulations, the tenant may contact the Residential Tenancy Branch for assistance.
- For further information on rent increases, see Part 3 of the Residential Tenancy Act and Part 4 of the Residential Tenancy Regulation. You may also call the recorded 24-hour information line or visit the B.C. Government Web site to find out how to contact a Residential Tenancy Branch or to get more information (this information is at the bottom of page 1).
